

FRENCH INDO-CHINA

the functionary group. Long-term credit and lowered on relieved the agricultural crisis, The completion of old programme may help the labour situation, and also an outlet. This achievement symbolizes the of the Indo-Chinese Union, and gives an iron framework

10 had only a paper ideal.

In 1936, Jules Bre*i*^h was appointed Governor-General of
He is the fourth West African administrator to fill that to deny the change of policy inherent in and Robin's to power. The Metropole has preferred 10 the functionaries trained in the Indo-Chinese

in to reassert the principle of unity in high colonial the French Empire. Above a certain official is not deemed essential, for fundamental French —60 the —can be applied as we! by an able to one as to another. It is also rumoured, un-Br6vif's African post was coveted by another official favour in the eyes of the government.

on the eve of departure for Indo-China, emphathe side of native policy. His swift «rf the wMch had so long hung fire, gives of There is* among the reactions of some in tibe evidence of the perennial jealousy rf <rf for "outside" aid. M. Brevie*s importation of Ms has given rise to criticism and nervous in the

POLICY

to thfc had a dearly defined foreign tfa of states, like the Chain's •ad peoples of superior erf force, like tf the vofe of had an accurate appre-of im- and merchants as heralds ttd in 1859 the n&jdertaken Jointly¹ by 'CcKhin-CUiia., Then

(

the ff» which

111% list Spain's withdrawal from bog restated, and